The Story of Mema's

Coming from Ohio, Pat & Kaye Archibald visited Palatka, Florida in 1986, following a friend who lived in San Mateo. Falling in love with the area & the people in it, they bought a homestead in the town of Bardin in 1989. Pat & Kaye (Mema & Papa) purchased a small restaurant & bar in Satsuma, Florida. They loved the "small town" idea.

2nd generation Kerri (daughter) invested in the restaurant in 1996. After marrying Dick Rose in 2005, he became a great "voice", advocate for Mema's. Kerri & Dick remodeled in 2006, making it a restaurant that sells beer & wine. Sandi Alford (daughter) also joined Mema's in 2006. She can still be found in the front and back of the house today.

Mema's is more than a restaurant, we are the ♥ of Satsuma. It has supported the community & they have supported it. Many donations have been made to service groups & the Sheriff's Department as needed.

Mema's, the restaurant is a building. Kerri, Sandi, & the employees are the true ♥ of Satsuma.

Mema & Papa's hard working mentality is the foundation of how we do things today!

Mema & Papa would be proud of the loyalty of our employees & customers.
